

Sirs;

I don't believe that changing the existing rules will benefit the public as it will reduce the variety of programming. The public needs information from diverse sources to be able to find the truth. Please retain the existing rules.